Your Weekly News Update from The Suthers School

In Brief:

- ◆ Our Word of the Week
was 'recollection'.
- ◆ Calling all Art Enthusiasts
This week we began the search for our first ever team of Art Ambassadors. Speak to Miss Leach for more info and to apply.
- ◆ Beacon Non-Uniform Day
Congratulations to students in Beacon who enjoyed their first non-uniform day of the year on Friday—and well done to everyone who managed to wear purple!
- ◆ Packed Lunch Reminder
A reminder that students who have PE 4a need to bring a packed lunch on those days. Thank you!
- ◆ Ending Period Poverty
Our students have taken a stand against 'Period Poverty' and are supporting the #FreePeriods movement by providing free sanitary products in every toilet at The Suthers School.

CELEBRATING SOCIAL ACTION AT WE DAY

On Tuesday 5 November, all of the students involved in last term's social action project 'Send My Friend to School' travelled to the Royal Concert Hall Theatre, Nottingham for a truly inspirational day in celebration of social action and the power young people have to make a difference. With performances and appearances from a whole host of celebrities including Game of Thrones actress Bella Ramsey, Emilio Estevez and Martin Luther King III, Suthers School students had an unforgettable day. As one student said, 'I loved it! All the speakers, singers and dancers were so amazing!' and the day was made even more memorable by the fact that two of our own students were up on stage with a celebrity host. Ellen and Georgia, founding members of SAVE, said, 'we were escorted backstage to the green room where we rubbed shoulders with celebrities and inspirational speakers. We then walked down through a series of complicated tunnels before Bella Ramsey greeted us—it was our turn and we walked proudly on stage'. A truly historic moment for The Suthers School!

SUTHERS SCHOOL HERE FOR ALL TO SEE

As those close to our brand new site in Fernwood may already have seen, we were delighted to learn that our school badge has now been added to the side of our building, sitting proud against the brilliant white of the side elevation. We have also been busy organising more site visits for students— more details coming very soon!

Landmark moment: The Suthers School building standing proud with its brand new badge on show this week.
